The house bill to authorize the construction of a bridge across the Savan lantic Railway Co. was placed on the calendar.

The senate then went back, (in consideration of the tariff bill.) to paragraph 434 relating to gloves which Senator Plumb had yesterday moved to amend by striking out the additional rate on men's gloves. The motion was defeated yeas 22, navs 30, Plumb being the only regulations who exted year.

Consideration of the free list was re sumed.
Senator Quay (not yet indicted) moved to insert in the free list wild animals intended for zoological collections, scientific and educational purposes and not for sale or profit. He made the motion, he said, at the suggestion of the Philadelphia zoological society.
